

- Shakespeare Project Highlights Bard's Work
7 p.m., Tue., Dec. 14 in BCC's Auditorium

Members of the Shakespeare Project will perform in scenes from a variety of Shakespearean works 7-8:30 p.m., Tue., Dec. 14 in BCC's auditorium. The event is an annual tradition at the college, is free and open to the public. All are invited to attend.

- Berkeley City College featured in Events which Commemorate Italy's 150th Anniversary as a Nation

Berkeley City College is featured in a souvenir "bandanna" commemorating the 150th anniversary of Italy's nationhood. Dr. Laura Ruberto, co-chair of BCC's Arts and Cultural Studies Department is working with the Italian Consulate and the Italian Cultural Institute of San Francisco to organize a series of events for the commemoration. Events and celebrations will be held throughout 2011.

- Multimedia Artist Alum's Work Featured
At San Francisco's Meridian Gallery

The work of Multimedia Arts alumna, digital videographer and artist Ruth Eckland is on Exhibit at San Francisco's Meridian Gallery. "Speak Memory," an exhibit which juxtaposes the familiar with the mysterious, the historical with the mythological and the remembered with the imagined. Her work is on display now through Feb. 12th 2011 at Meridian Gallery's downtown San Francisco location at 535 Powell Street. The gallery is open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday.

- BCC Unity Club Invites You to Holiday Fest

BCC's Unity Club will host a Holiday Festival 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 8, in the college's Atrium and Auditorium. Festivities will feature holiday booths and performances in the college's auditorium. Join us for this festive occasion.

- EOPS Hosts Annual Holiday Celebration

EOPS will host its holiday celebration Noon-3 p.m., Fri., Dec. 17 in the college's student lounge. You can donate a gift for the CARE/CalWORKs toy drive. Stop by the mail room by Dec. 10, select a child's name and help make possible a little one's happy holiday.

- BCC Hosts 2010 East Bay Alternative Press Fest

Berkeley City College will host the 2010 East Bay Alternative Press Festival, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 11, at Berkeley City College.

More than 40 different alternative press representatives will share their wares and host panels, readings, workshops and other activities throughout the day.

Zinester and BCC English instructor Tom Moniz of Rad Dad Zine, M.K Chavez of Cherry Bleeds Press and Berkeley City College's own Milvia Street contributors have organized a one day event to celebrate the amazing quality and diversity of independent writing and publishing in the Bay Area.