

We had a successful Dia De Los Muertos event in November. There was a large student turnout, and the ceremonial altars stayed up in the R building for the whole month of November.

>

College Hour has gone through the shared governance process and will be implemented Fall 2011. We are very excited about this, and look for an increase to student life as a result of this.

>

Peet's is opening up Spring 2011. We are very excited to see the future success of this venture.

>

As far as entrepreneurial activities are concerned, ASMC sponsored it's first wedding on Saturday. It was a beautiful wedding, with 80 guests.

>

Upcoming events: The Puente Club is holding a Noche de Familia tomorrow evening as an end of year celebration. The Black Student Union, in conjunction with ASMC, and the Ethnic Studies department, is holding a Poetry Slam/End of Year celebration on December 15th.

Happy Holidays,

Grace Marlin
ASMC, President