

p c c d

merritt college center for science and allied health board of trustees meeting: 03.29.2011 site development: academic community site development: building on the slope site development: LEED® Gold sustainable sites: open space, stormwater treatment, prevent light pollution, reduce heat island effect water efficiency: drought-tolerant landscape, low water-use fixtures energy and atmosphere: minimum 35% improvement over code, on-site renewable energy materials and resources: local sourcing, sustainably harvested, low-embodied energy interior environmental quality: air quality, daylight and views innovation in design: exemplary performance regional priority credits: site development, water conservation, renewable energy, daylight

Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design site development: welcoming community interior design: learning neighborhoods

1. Laboratory Classrooms
2. Lecture Classrooms / Learning Neighborhoods
3. Vertical Circulation
4. Service Cores
5. Learning Landmarks
6. Interaction Space / Landscape Connections interior design: color palette light, color and form

coast

forest

grassland

interior design: learning neighborhood , west entry interior design: central stair, 3rd floor interior design: south entry, 2nd floor interior design: central hallway, interaction area interior design: instructional areas exterior design: front porch, west entry exterior design: campus quad exterior design: sun control, south gateway exterior design: welcoming community exterior design: a story in the skin

