

PERALTA COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT
RESOLUTION 14/15-05 NAMING THE MERRITT ALLIED HEALTH BUILDING FOR CONGRESSWOMAN BARBARA LEE

WHEREAS, United States Congresswoman Barbara Lee is one of the most dedicated and memorable members of the Peralta Community College District (“Peralta”) community and a champion of the District’s mission to provide excellent affordable and accessible education to the residents of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Lee’s contribution to Peralta includes her acquisition of federal funding for community based job training grants, student success programs, vocation education, access to internships for Peralta students, and community service education through the Barbara Lee & Elihu Harris Lecture Series in collaboration with Peralta; and

WHEREAS, Congresswoman Barbara Lee is a leader, scholar and loyal supporter of Peralta who has remained close to the Peralta community throughout her years of service in public office in the California State Assembly, the United States House of Representatives and as the Congressional representative to the United Nations.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED; that in recognition and honor of her leadership and advocacy for Peralta, the Allied Health Building located at Merritt College scheduled to be opened in Fall 2015 will henceforth be known as the Barbara Lee Allied Health Building.
